

It has come to my attention that again my privacy is putting put at jeapordy by the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA). Please don't let them weaken Indiana's law and the rights of the citizens here. Let the voice of the people here be important and more influential than the power of the CBA's money.